

PART III

JOHN HENRY JORDAN'S DESCENDANTS

JOHN HENRY JORDAN

John Henry Jordan was the second son of P. C. Jordan and Charlotte Weldon. Along with other members of the family, he moved from Alabama to Mississippi in 1855. At that time his family consisted of a wife and five children, four daughters and one son. His oldest daughter was by his first wife, who had died in 1846 in Alabama. She was ten years old when they arrived in Mississippi.

Apparently John remained in Mississippi approximately five years before moving on to Louisiana. According to family records, two of his children were born during his time in Mississippi: Winnie, born in 1857, and Mandy, born in 1860. His next child, John Henry, Jr., was born in Sabine Parish, Louisiana in 1862. Based on this information, it is likely that John moved his family to Louisiana about 1861. There he acquired farm land and lived for the remainder of his life.

Many of his descendants presently live in Sabine Parish and elsewhere and are making a contribution to the civic, educational, religious, and political life of their respective communities. Several of J. H. Jordan's descendants have generously given their time and efforts to provide the information that follows in this record.
